JIHAD AND JEW-HATRED

Islamism, Nazism and the Roots of 9/11

by Matthias Küntzel

2008 Winner of the Gold IPPY Award in Religion

“Bracing . . . startling . . . bold and consequential.”

—New York Times Sunday Book Review

“The most important work written in the wake of 9/11.”

—Jewish Political Studies Review

“Küntzel provides a well-grounded analysis of Islamist jihadism that preaches anti-Jewish hatred . . . A most welcome contribution to understanding this subject.”

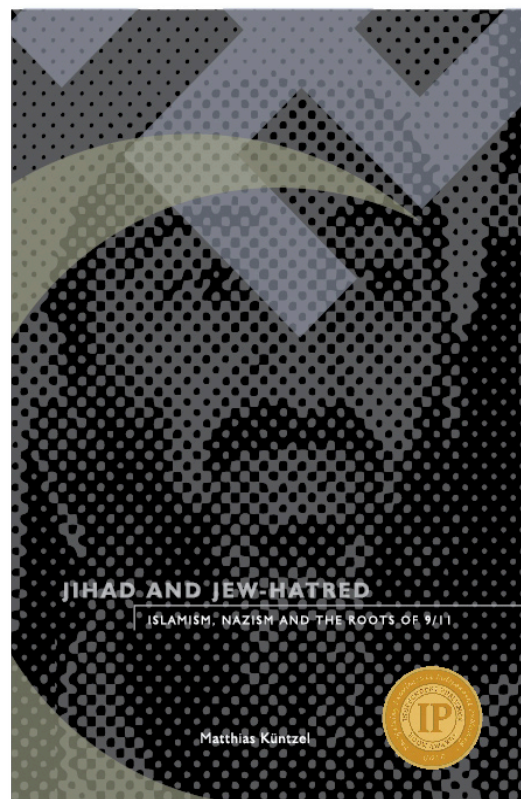

—Bassam Tibi, Professor of International Relations at the University of Gottingen, and A.D. White Professor-at-Large at Cornell University

In this short, powerful, passionate and thoughtful book, Matthias Küntzel explores how and why radical Islam emerged as the most important political and ideological movement in world politics to place hatred of the Jews at the center of its ideology and policy following the defeat of the Nazi regime. . . . Küntzel’s reconstruction impels us to rethink the issue of continuity and break before and after 1945 and expand our horizons beyond Europe to encompass the trans-national diffusion and impact of Nazism and fascism on the Arab and Islamic world. (From the foreword by Jeffrey Herf, Professor of History, University of Maryland)
